

What Lincoln is Reading

Wondering what the folks in Lincoln are reading? Here are a few of this month's most popular titles at the Lincoln Public Library District.

ADULT NON-FICTION

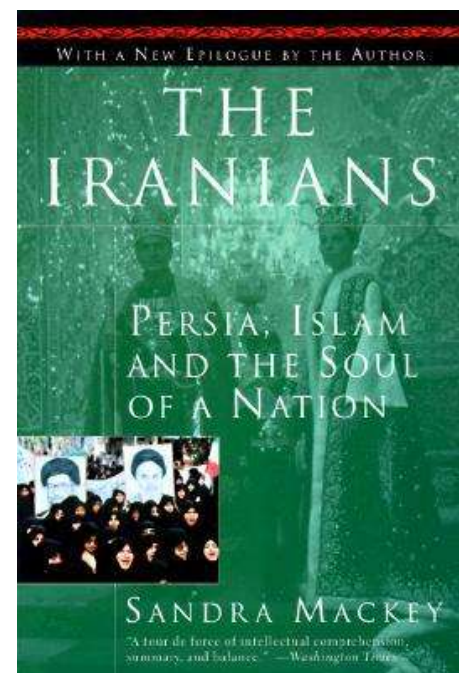

""The Ruthless Elimination of Hurry: How to Stay Emotionally Healthy and Spiritually Alive in the Chaos of the Modern World" by John Mark Comer

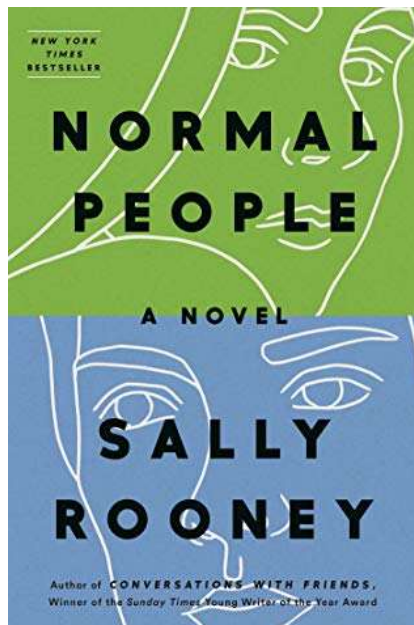

Pastor John Comer will take you on the journey to discover how the pursuit of hurry affects us both emotionally and spiritually. In his own words he will walk you down a roadmap trying to discover where to go and what to avoid to be the best most healthy version of yourself that you can be. Discover who you are, who you are becoming and some of the things you can do to become the person that you want to be.

"The Iranians: Persia, Islam and the Soul of a Nation" by Sandra Mackey

The culture of Iran throughout history is one fraught with pain, fear, and warring belief systems. In this book Sandra Mackey will share how the struggles of the Iranian people brought about the revolution of 1979 and how the Islamic republic had failed bringing the Iran the world knows today into chaos. With a stunning combination of history and human observations Mackey helps people understand a little better the people of this crucial nation.

ADULT FICTION

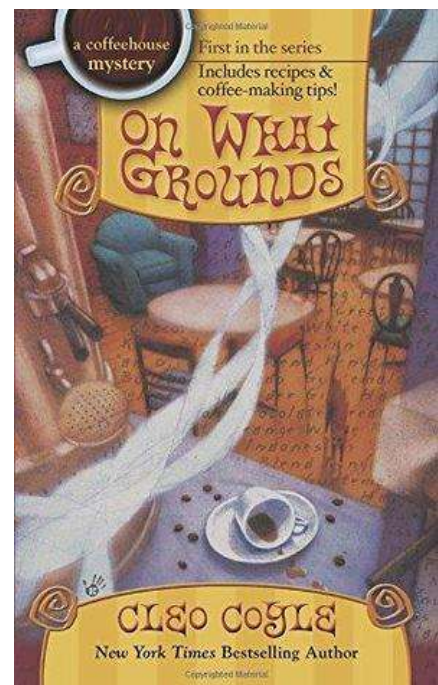

"Normal People" by Sally Rooney

Connell and Marianne are just two normal, very different, teenagers. He is the most popular star of the soccer team while she is incredibly shy and quiet. When unexpected circumstance draw them together the connection between them grows. One year later, away at college the roles have seemingly swapped. When Marianne spirals down into self-destruction and Connell is on the hunt for meaning, they will have to take a hard look at how far they are willing to go for one another.

"On What Grounds" (Coffeehouse Mystery #1) by Cleo Coyle

Clare Cosi is the manager of the Village Blend coffeehouse. Life is pretty normal until one morning she walks into the coffeehouse to find the assistant manager dead. With no signs of forced entry the police deem it an accident and Clare is left to clean up the grounds. Why can't Clare shake the feeling that something is off, should she be concerned? Is she in danger?

YOUNG ADULT FICTION

"Activist: A Story of the Marjory Stoneman Douglas Shooting" by Lauren Elizabeth Hogg

In this moving graphic novel, Marjory Stoneman survivor Lauren Hogg shares her story. Losing her two best friends and numerous other classmates in a horrifying, Valentines day shooting. She shares how she and her classmates found their voices among the grief to skyrocket an already growing movement to seek out safety for themselves and all the students yet to come.

"Perfect Chemistry" by Simone Elkeles

Brittany Ellis has the perfect life, or so she wants everyone to believe. The reality is her home life is the complete opposite of the perfect facade that she shows the world. Alex Fuentes is trouble. Pure and simple, or so everyone assumes. Being the man of the house and the oldest of three boys from the wrong side of the tracks, alliances had to be made. When they are forced to be lab partners will the chemistry blow up in their faces?

